Hi Allison,

Yep, I noticed the problem with version control. I have Alan's landslide edits and am comparing all of the versions at this moment.

Jayne

PS I plan to delete the section on general comments since it is essentially a status report, which can be provided on the status table. It does not fit in with the other topics. Ok?

Don--

I think your edits look fine. My only comment is that I think you were working on a older draft that didn't include the most recent updates to the other sections. I've added what I think is the most recent versions of those docs (landslides is the only one I'm unsure of since Alan was working on that as well).

Jayne, I've attached both clean and track changes versions.

Jayne & others,

Please see my additions to the New Dvpt section and the new section on OSDS Inspections. Ex. 5 - Attorney Client

Ex. 5 - Attorney Client

tomorrow with the appropriate level of detail to: (a) do the discussion justice, and (b) keep us on track and not bogged down in excessive detail.

If anyone has any changes, we ask that you send them to Jayne and me no later than today at 4 PM Pacific Time.
